The Chamber is organized for the purpose of advancing the commercial, industrial, civil, cultural and general interests of Mechanicville and Stillwater.

How is the Mechanicville - Stillwater Chamber of Commerce supporting you and your community?

The Mechanicville-Stillwater Chamber is your Voice/Business Agent/Spokesman/Sales Manager/Information Bureau/Education Seminar Center and more....

We work diligently behind the scenes to promote your business in a number of ways:

- Responding promptly and courteously to hundreds of inquiries about our local businesses, we create positive impressions and enhance public esteem.
- Unveiling a new website featuring comprehensive information about our area, community events, attractions, and local businesses.
- Serving as a collective voice on matters of taxation, legislation, historic preservation, and city services to safeguard and improve your business.
- Offering programs, seminars, and tailored services to ensure the success of your business and employees.
- Cultivating partnerships that reflect your area's rich tradition of friendliness and hospitality.
- Providing a timely source of information to facilitate your business operations, including statistical data, facts on business trends, population, employment practices, and developments.
- Acting as a rallying point for every civic movement with the goal of benefiting the community."
